Reflections from past participants:

- It was energizing to "listen to all the feedback and realize all the improvements he's made over the past 18 months." -Parent
- "Similar to a MAPS process, but more story centered...Good opportunity to come together for an extended period of time-really delve into [the] student." -Speech Language Pathologist
- "The [Student] Summit is a celebration of the student." -Special Educator
- "The time is focused-feels like "off task" talk is minimal, student centered." -Special Educator
- "The process gets you excited to see what he will do next...keep pushing him to grow and succeed." -Instructor
